Contemporary Christian Artist David Crowder Performing at the Paramount Center

As the David Crowder Band has now put a period at the end of its sentence, a new chapter is emerging for front-man, David Crowder.

As the next paragraph begins, David Crowder will take the stage of The Paramount Center for the Arts performing with his new collective, simply called, Crowder. Fans can expect more of what they've always loved about David Crowder through the years; the songs, the worship, musical innovation and now they get to be a part of the new beginning when the doors of the Paramount open for the 7:30 PM show on Friday, March, 8, 2013. Tickets will go on sale Friday, January 11, 2013 on-line at E-Tix, at the Paramount Box Office, and Viking Hall Civic Center Box Office at 10:00 AM. To charge tickets by phone please call 423-274-8920 or 423-764-4171.

The group has been awarded 9 GMA Dove Awards, and has been nominated for 22 additional Dove Awards and a Grammy for their work on "Church Music". Crowder was named as one "the most thoughtful, progressive and exciting acts in contemporary Christian music" by the New York Times, the popular yet unconventional Crowder draws an enthusiastic audience where ever he performs.
