Rod Stewart Impersonator Returns to Downtown Bristol

Rob Caudill returns to the Downtown Center for a command performance of his high-energy show recreating Rod Stewart on August 1, 2013 at 7:00 PM.

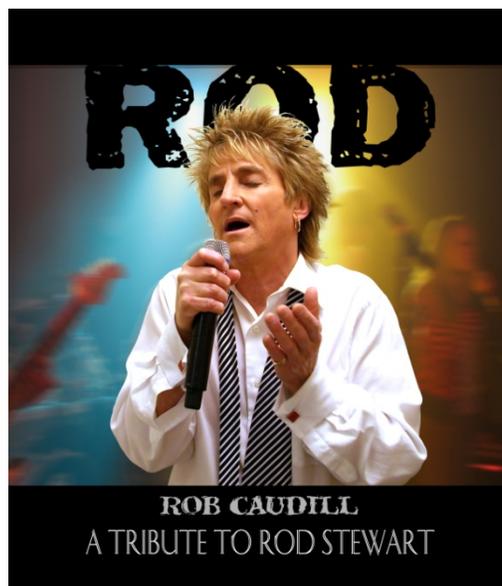

“The Rod Stewart concert is so exciting with all the electricity in the crowd and on stage. This was one of the most well received acts we have ever hosted on the Downtown Center stage. There was well over 2,000 in attendance at the performance last year. Rob stays in character the entire time and takes you on a thrilling experience just listening and singing along to the sounds of Rod Stewart. This is the concert you don’t want to miss,” said Darlene Cole, Venue Manager for the City of Bristol.

From the age of seventeen people always told Rob he looked like Rod Stewart. It wasn’t until 1996 that he realized he couldn’t seem to escape the remarkable natural resemblance to Rod Stewart so he heeded the advice of his friend Joe Walsh of the Eagles and began his tribute career. With spiky blonde hair and a plethora of stage clothes he struts on stage and people scream themselves hoarse. From kicking out soccer balls and spinning mic stands in his high energy show to belting out all of Rod’s greatest hits, it is a must-see show for all ages. Caudill has jammed with Joe Walsh, John Entwistle of the Who, along with members of Lynyrd Skynyrd, Allman Brothers Band, Cheap Trick, The Clash and Red Hot Chili Peppers just to name a few. He has worked with the world famous Legends in Concert out of Las Vegas for the past 17 years.

“This series has been a huge success,” reported Terrie Talbert, Director of Community Relations for the city. “We are encouraging everyone to come out early to get a seat. He is an amazing performer and is backed with a fantastic five piece band. And of course as always the concert is free to the public.”

The Full Moon Jam Concert and Tribute series runs from May through September on Tuesday and Thursday evenings beginning nightly at 7:00 P.M. The concerts are hosted at 810 State Street in the Downtown Center and are sponsored by the City of Bristol Tennessee, Wells Fargo Bank, Bristol Herald Courier, WTFM, and Charter Media.
