City Mayors Call for Nominations

The Mayors of the twin cities made the official call for nominations today for the 2010 Mayors Award of Distinction. The 3rd annual awards event for the cities was created to recognize an individual or organizations that have made an outstanding contribution to Bristol in the arts, industry, commerce, entertainment, education or to the welfare of others. This prestigious award may also be bestowed to persons that have achieved regional, national, or international recognition and positively promoted Bristol in doing so.

“Last year we had two outstanding individuals recognized and we are excited about this year’s nominations. Ten people from our area have been acknowledged for what they have brought to our city. Through their efforts many lives have been impacted in countless ways,” said Bristol Tennessee Mayor Fred Testa. Bristol Virginia Mayor James Rector stated, “This event continues to grow. There are a vast number of people in our area who everyday are working to make our community better and deserve to be recognized. The process of nominating someone is simple and the recognition, extraordinary.”

All nominations will be reviewed by a citizen panel comprised of members from civic and non-profit groups, and members of the media. The award panel will choose the recipients of this prestigious award for conferral by the Mayors later in the spring.

Nomination forms are available at the Bristol Public Library, YWCA, YMCA, Chamber of Commerce, the Slater and Douglass Community Centers or at either city hall. The forms may also be downloaded for your convenience at bristoltn.org or bristolva.org.

Nominations will be accepted until Monday, March 1, 2010 at 5:00 P.M. and must be postmarked by that date.
