News Release

Photo of the Week

Have a great eye for photos? The City of Bristol is currently accepting submissions for Bristol Photograph of the Week! Submissions should be original photographs of the Bristol area, including landscapes, buildings, and events in the Bristol region. Please give a brief description of where the photo was taken and your name and contact information. Each Friday after 4:00 PM the Photo of the Week will be posted on city's Facebook. All photos submitted will only be used on the city's social media platforms and city publications. No compensation will be provided for use of the photos however photographers will be given photo credit. Please note that there is no guarantee that the submitted photos will be used however we welcome all submissions! Thank you for sharing your photos!

Submit photos by sending them to: photooftheweek@bristoltn.org
