Steele Creek Park passports now available

It is that time of year when we are all trying to find things for our kids to do during the warm summer months. There are so many options, but keeping them out in the fresh air and moving is key to most parents. The perfect solution is - a Steele Creek Park Passport. The passport is good for one year from the date of purchase. The park passport gives the family access not only to the park, but adventure, health, fitness, exercise, the beauty of nature, imagination and of course sports.

Steele Creek Park encompasses over 2,200 acres including a beautiful lodge main room and kitchen facilities, smaller party and conference rooms. There are rental shelters spread throughout the park that are reasonably priced for The park has 20 picnic tables arranged in different areas of the park, some by the some in more wooded areas and some even near the playground area for use by all park visitors.

The primary area used by the park is approximately 75 acres with a 52 acre lake which may be toured by water on one of the parks paddle boats. There is a 2,600 square-foot Nature Center with a diverse array of live animals and exhibits showcasing the natural history of the park.

The most popular activity at the park is of course the Steele Creek Express with more than 18,000 riders per year. Another favorite of young and old alike are the many walking, hiking, and bike trails throughout the park.

Families will have unlimited access to the park and can enjoy as much fun as they can pack into each day and more with the purchase of the Steele Creek Park Passport for just $50.00.

The passports may be purchased at the following locations: the entrance gate and golf shop at Steele Creek Park located at 4 Little Lane, the Finance Office at City Hall located at 801 Anderson St., and the Slater Center office located at 325 McDowell Street.
