Fleenor promoted and re-assigned to Public Works

Mr. Jacob Chandler, Interim Director of Public Works announced the promotion and appointment of Brittany Fleenor in the Secretary III position vacated by Velma Witte who joined the City Manager's office earlier this summer as Executive Secretary.

Mrs. Fleenor has been with the City in early 2016 serving as Office Manager in the Department of Community Relations. She will take her skill set to the Department of Public Works working with management there generating complex correspondence, manuals, and reports. She will be responsible for maintaining data bases for several different divisions within the department.

Chandler stated, "We believe Brittany will be a great asset to the department. She comes to us with a great work ethic and ability to work in a very fast-paced environment."
