Child-Friendly Stained Glass

Help Children Be Creative

Put a sheet of contact paper on a window (sticky side out), then allow kids to stick on brightly colored pieces of tissue paper. The tissue can be cut in shapes or torn in strips. Continue adding tissue until you have a colorful creation.