Outdoor Sensory Scavenger Hunt

Hand out drawn sensory clues to kids, as well as, blank paper & pens. The 1st clue could be hidden near a tree root & they must find something that feels "rough". Next, try something smooth, something wet, something warm & son on. As they discover their clue, have them draw or write on the blank paper where they discovered the clue. The last clue is the treasure, perhaps a small toy or some candy.